To Advertisers.—The VERMONT DAILY TRANSCRIPT has the largest circulation in St. Albans and in Franklin County, of any daily paper, and on that account, if no other, the best medium for advertising.

Local Items.

Interesting matter, original or selected, may always be found on the first page.

OUR DAILY.—Those wishing to secure copies of our daily paper can do so at Ferrisfield's and Baker's bookstores, a copy of each, and at the office, copies of our weekly paper may also be had at these places.

Look in at Morton & Percy's for Fall and Winter Overcoats, with Moyer's Patent Sleeve Cuff, the best thing out.

THE HURLEY AFFRAY.—The arrest of Michael Conlin, one of the parties implicated in killing Hurley was made by Officer L. M. Downing, at Roxbury. Officer Downing also tracked Lawrence McGarvey, the principal in the affray, to Burlington, where, with the assistance of Officer Leonard C. Bliss, of that city, he made his arrest on Saturday afternoon last, while he was at work in the trenches of the City Water-Works, in Champlain Street. All of the parties engaged in the affray are now arrested; and Officer Downing of our police force entitled to great praise for the tact and energy which he displayed in following up the case. McGarvey is now a jail at this place.

DEATH FROM AN ACCIDENT.—Mr. Edward Tucker, the switchman, who was injured between two freight cars at his place on Tuesday, September 23d, and mentioned by us, died at St. Albans from his injuries on Saturday night September 26th. Mr. Tucker resided at St. Albans, and leaves a wife; he formerly resided at Stockbridge, Vt., where he remains were taken on the mail train this morning, accompanied by his father and mother, who came here to attend him after the accident.

ACCIDENT.—Mr. Edward O. Young, freight conductor on the freight train going south, was knocked off his car on one of the Northfield bridges on Saturday night last. He was in the saloon car, and was looking from the door, under it to see if everything was in order when the bridge hit him. The train stopped and picked him up and carried him to Roxbury, where he resides. He was hurt badly about the head, and his leg was severely jammed, about as bad as broken. It is not thought, however, that his injuries will prove fatal.

THE ST. ALBANS GRANT CLUB.—Would it not be well for the proper authorities to call a meeting of this Club some early day? We have local talent and home interest sufficient to make the meetings lively; besides, there are political demonstrations to be made by somebody soon. What says the President?

REV. FATHER PARMALEE is at present temporarily supplying the desk of the Congregational Church at Westford, Vermont.

THE POTTERS.—Mr. Charles H. Potter, and Adelia S. Potter, his wife, pleaded not guilty, to the several indictments found against them for burglarly etc.

THE MEMBERS OF THE EAGLE BASE BALL CLUB are requested to meet at the store of H. E. & S. H. Lewis this evening, at 9 o'clock.

REAL ESTATE.—Capt. Miner E. Fish, of Shelton, has sold his farm and stock to Dorcas Wright, late owner of Central House, for $14,000. The farm lies in the east part of the Town, and is a very desirable one for dairy purposes. Success to the new occupant. A friend writes: "We are very sorry to part with the Captain and his family, for they have become endeared to us by their many acts of kindness and good will. May health and happiness now be their lot."

The Fair at Richford.

SECOND DAY.

The weather of the second day of the Richford Fair was delightful, and there was a large crowd in attendance. Hon. George W. Hender delivered a capital address, which was attentively listened to. The Fair was a great improvement on former ones, and it is believed that the next one will surpass them all. We copy from the Sentinel an account of the races:

THE RACES.

Two purses were offered to fast horses—a purse of $40; $25 to best, and $15 to second; open to all trotting horses in the limits of the Society which had never won a first class purse; mile heats—best two in three, to harness; and a purse of $50 to all running horses that had never run for public money—$20 to first, $10 to second, and $5 to third best; mile heats, best three in five.

The trotting race came off on the first day. Col. Thomas Bowiss, W. R. Hutton, and C. S. Royce were chosen judges. There were two entries. J. B. Swadland, named him "Sleepy Jane," and L. Round signed "Grity Fanny." Both horses got off at the word, "Grity Fanny" having the pole. The bay mare broke soon after starting, and Fanny shot ahead and kept the lead, passing the judges' stand several lengths ahead, in 3:04.

In the second heat, both horses trotted finely, and almost side by side for a greater part of the heat. Jane would sometimes succeed in pushing her head past that of Fanny, but it was evident that the gray was a little too fast for her, and when within a few rods of the stand, Jane broke, and Fanny won the heat by a dozen lengths, in 3:04. The race was in a bad condition, owing to the rain, and the time made was not so fast by several seconds as both had previously made.

For the running race on the second day, S. P. Carpenter, C. S. Royce, and C. Royce were selected as judges. Four horses were entered. Henry Pickle named him "Lady Monarch," M. P. Godard, called him "Berkshire Boy," W. Y. Wigutman, called him "Nimble Jack," C. Beach, called him "Mississippi Belle." The following is the summary:

Mississippi Belle 3 2 1 1 1
 Lady Monarch 1 1 2 drawn
 Berkshire Boy 2 3 drawn
 Nimble Jack 4 drawn

Lady Monarch took the first two heats and was leading on the third, when she came into collision with a double team, and was being driven on the track, injuring both horse and rider. As on the previous day, the track was heavy, and the time made was not very good in consequence. After the conclusion of the race, the well known thorough-bred, "Crozier," from Southbury, P. Q., ran one heat to the benefit of the crowd. He was ridden by Peter Pickle, and made the last half mile in 1 minute.

VERMONT AND KENTUCKY.

—The Chicago Post says: "Prentice says Vermont is an 'old rip.' If she is, she isn't an old rip Van Winkle, as Kentucky is. She hasn't been asleep in the Green Mountains for 20 years, that's certain. When will Kentucky wake up? It will be as good as a play when she does. Poor old creature! How astonished she will be when the old stock falls from her gun barrel! The 'willage of Falling Water' will not know her—the dogs will bark at her—and the little children run from her. Poor old Kentucky! She thinks slavery is not dead!"

Re-Union of Vermont Officers.

The Fifth Annual Re-Union of Vermont officers will be held at Montpelier on Thursday, the 23d of October next. The members of the Re-Union Society, and all Vermont officers of the army and navy are respectfully invited to attend the usual preliminary meeting for the election of officers and other business, which will be held at the Court House, at 10 o'clock, a. m. The oration will be delivered by Gen. P. T. Washburn, at the fall of the House of Representatives, during the evening. In issuing this call, it has been thought proper to state briefly the history of the organization, its aims and its objects. In the Autumn of 1864, a few officers and ex-officers issued a call for a meeting to be held at Montpelier, for the purpose of tendering a complimentary dinner to Gen. George J. Stannard, then scarcely recovered from the effect of his wounds received at the storming of Fort Harrison. About 75 officers assembled in response to that call, and formed at permanent organization. Since that time, meetings of the Society have annually been held, and the membership has increased to about 300, a large majority of whom have been present at the meetings.

The object of this association is simply to afford an opportunity to renew, through social intercourse, the ties of friendship formed in the field; to draw a renewed inspiration and renewed courage for the work yet before us from the "touch of a comrade's elbow," and the sight of the shot-rent standards under which we fought, and so many of our heroes fell; and to keep green and sacred in our hearts the memories of the five thousand who gave their lives for the cause.

 President.

DEMOCRATIC OUTRAGE.—We learn that a Republican meeting at Keeseville on Friday evening was broken up by some Democratic rowdies. Both parties came to blows and the constables were obliged to make several arrests.

Look in at Morton & Percy's for Fall and Winter Overcoats, with Moyer's Patent Sleeve Cuff, the best thing out.

FULTON MARKET.—Just received, a nice lot Dried Beef, Sugar Cured Hams, Bologna Sausage, Sweet Potatoes, Tomatoes, Peas, Peaches, Water Melons and Musk Melons. dtf-94.

The Talisman of fashion; the favorite of beauty; the pet of luxury in every dressing-room and boudoir, is "Barrett's Vegetable Hair Restorative." It is a sure preventive to baldness and premature gray hair, and no lady or gentleman should be without it.—St. Joseph Herald.

In The Douloureux, rub Penne's Pain-Killing Magic Oil around the ear, and especially on the prominent face bone above the ear. You thus reach the "fifth pair of nerves, which go to the face," and if you use it faithfully it soon cures. d&w.

THE QUESTION SETTLED.—Those eminent men, Dr. James Clark, Physician to Queen Victoria, and Dr. Hughes Bennett, say that consumption can be cured. Dr. Wistar knew this when he discovered his now widely known Balsam of Wild Cherry, and experience has proved the correctness of his opinion.

Manhood: How Lost, How Restored.

Just published, a new edition of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay on the Radical Cure (without medicine) of Strabismus, or Squint Weakness, Involuntary Sexual Losses, Impotency, also, Gonorrhea, Syphilis, and Fists, induced by self-indulgence or sexual extravagance.
 Price in a sealed envelope, only 6 cents.
 The celebrated author in this admirable essay clearly demonstrates from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of a knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately, and radically.
 This lecture should be in the hands of every youth and every man in the land.
 Sent under seal, in a plain envelope, to any address, postpaid, on receipt of six cents, or two post stamps. Also, Dr. Culverwell's "Marriage Guide," price 25 cents. Address the Publishers,
